

Anna Lindh Foundation
Network of Luxembourg and the Greater Region

INTERCULTURAL FORUM

« The potential of transnational civil society cooperation in support of freedom of speech »

Date : Saturday 14th December 2019
Neumünster Abbey

Registration

Programme

- 15h30 Opening - Welcome drinks & snacks
- 16h00 Podium Discussion: « The potential of transnational civil society cooperation in support of freedom of speech »
Languages: alternately in English and French
- Martine Kleinberg - President, Comité pour une Paix Juste au Proche Orient
 - Nezar Al Rawi - President at Arabic Association for Cultural Exchange (AACE), Filmmaker
 - Monica Fernandes - Director, 4motion Asbl.
- Moderators: Karine Bouton, Philippe Ternes
- 17h00 Discussion Workshops in the following languages: Arabic, English, French, Luxembourgish, German, Spanish and more.
Development of the project “Be My Voice”: this project invites citizens of all member countries of the Anna Lindh Foundation to support each other by recording the statements submitted by citizens from another country on video. The project thus aims to promote the human right of freedom of expression transnationally.
- 18h00 Conclusion

Contacts : karine.bouton@neimenster.lu, philippe@ourcommonfuture.org